PIONIER PARTY LOST.

Mystery and Probable Tragedy Near Santa Barbara, Cal.

Santa Barbara, Cal., Aug. 18.—Much anxiety was felt here over the disappearance of all but one member of a picnic party. One of the missing, Miss Katherine Grathwol of St. Paul, Minn., was reported dying; Frederick Lueders, an artist of this city, has returned a raving maniac, and Fred Webster, Nellie Stone, Fred Gilbert and Grace Porter, also of this city, could not be found. The party left this place for a day's picnic at the summit of the mountains, reached by the Luchmire trail. Frederick Lueders got back at night and reported that one of the party, Miss Grathwol, was dying, but he was so exhausted that none of the particulars could be learned.

A search party then left for the scene, and Lueders followed them. They returned at midnight with Lueders, who was found at the foot of the grade in a frenzy and who could give no account of the whereabouts of his companions. The efforts of the searchers so far have been fruitless. Miss Grathwol was staying at Santa Barbara for her health and was only twenty-four years old.
